Byers Office Equipment
212 West Third Street
Davenport, Iowa

Attention: Mr. W.E. Byers

At a meeting of the property committee of the Scott County Library Board, held Thursday evening, March 9, the bids on office equipment were opened and carefully considered. The committee instructed me to inform you that your bid was rejected because that of another company better meets our requirements.

We appreciate very much your effort and cooperation in entering your bid, and the committee wishes to thank you.

Yours very truly,

Elizabeth B. Hage
Librarian
Scott County Library

Dear Mr. Johnson:

At a special meeting of the Scott County Library board held last night, bids on the lighting fixtures for the library quarters in Eldridge, Iowa were opened and examined. After careful consideration of all bids, the board rejected the bid entered by your company because another was lower.

We appreciate very much your effort and cooperation in entering your bid, and the board wishes to thank you.

Yours very truly,

Elizabeth B. Hage
Librarian
Scott County Library
